

THE ROLE OF PUBLIC PROCUREMENT IN THE ACTUAL CONTEXT

Presentation

Society demands more transparency in all aspects of administrative actions, and public procurement has to play an important role because of its high volume. The economic situation in general and in Catalonia in particular, has profoundly affected the budgets of the public sector, which, in public procurement could have a dual result : first , to optimize economic efficiency and otherwise promote the development of social policies and economic stimulus through public procurement

Our aim, during the day is to make an analysis of the mentioned situation, to share specific ideas in each of these areas and generate proposals that contribute to the optimal development of the public procurement in the current socio-economic context . It is a cross-conference addressed both the heads of the various contracting entities as units that promote the recruitment and contracting agencies of different Catalan government.

Objectives

Give visibility to the activities to promote transparency and guarantee the rights of citizens in public procurement. As well as to reflect contributions in efficiency and achievement of general interest in public procurement policies.

Target

Basically , personnel procurement units linked to different entities of the Catalan government and its public sector. In general, all those directly involved in public procurement.
